Taxi

A trip by taxi is faster (20-25 minutes to the centre of Bucharest) and pretty cheap (30 lei – 7 Euros).

1. Before you take a taxi, go to the taxi ticket machine and get a ticket (choose from different taxi companies. The typical price of an official taxi in Bucharest should not exceed 1.40 Lei/km)

Taxi ticket machines at the Bucharest airport (for instance next to the information desk)

2. Then go out and look out for the taxi with the number indicated on your ticket (e.g. 577)

A typical (official) taxi in Bucharest

3. Make sure you only take official taxis

An official taxi always has the price per km written on the door and a taximeter switched on. The price per km should not exceed 1.40 Lei/km (usually 1.39 Lei/km).

4. Problems with taxis in Bucharest and how to avoid them.

It can happen that taxi drivers try to take advantage of you, in particular if you do not speak the local language. In order to avoid this, please be aware of the following.

1. When you take a taxi at the airport, make sure you go to the taxi ticket machine and draw a ticket (outside the airport this ticket system does not apply).
2. Make sure you take a taxi that costs 1.39 Lei/km (or maximum 1.40 Lei/km. The price should always be written on the door. Please check before you enter the taxi.)
3. Make sure the taximeter is switched on when you enter the taxi.
4. Some taxi drivers take a longer route than required but please be aware that a journey to the centre should cost around 30 Lei (or rather less).
5. It is common to tip the taxi driver. It can also happen that the driver keeps the difference or even if you tip them, please check the change.
6. Make sure the taxi driver gives you a receipt. Legally, you are not obliged to pay the bill if they do not give you a receipt. In case of a conflict situation it may help if you note down the number of the taxi and the name of the driver.
